29087712	Refused	F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete. The applicant originally provided statements in respect of 3 bank accounts. The latter two accounts showed a low balance. One account appears to be comprised mostly of withdrawals and to be overdrawn. Updated copies of these statements were not provided in support of the appeal. A document entitled 'Successful Bids Award Advice' was also provided at first instance. It was unclear as to what type of account this referred. A letter from the applicant's bank was provided in support of the appeal, indicating that the applicant "successfully bid and invested in treasury bills" and that the amount invested is "...set to mature on 14th December 2017..." It remains unclear as to what type of account this is, e.g., a basic deposit account, an investment account that may be liable to risks, etc. The applicant has secured a MasterCard facility. However, credit cards are not accepted for the purpose of a study visa application. ID:- Insufficient documentation submitted in support of the application:- The applicant has provided a letter in respect of his most recent employer. It states that he worked part time and on a voluntary basis with the organisation, while also running his three businesses. The applicant has failed to provide evidence of employment with the other organisations mentioned in his application. It is stated that the applicant intends to study in the State, because in his home country, the University of Malawi is the only institution that offers a Law Programme and it only enrolls approximately 50 students per year. It is unclear as to whether or not the applicant has applied for, and failed to secure an offer from this institution. The applicant has not satisfied the visa officer that there is sufficient reason for coming to the State to pursue the course of study SP:- Previous educational or employment background is at odds with course applied for The applicant has failed to provide

The applicant, the reference\sponsor and the family of the reference\sponsor are stated to be long term close friends. I have considered the stated purpose of the visa sought. I have considered the particular circumstances of the applicant in line with short stay visit visa criterion. I am not satisfied that the applicant has addressed concerns surrounding his\her financial position. Multiple large unexplained lump sum credit lodgements are evident in the applicant's account. The amounts of those monies are not consistent with the applicant' stated earnings from employment. The source of the monies have not clarified. As a result, the unexplained lodgements evident cannot be taken into consideration as verified monies available to the applicant. Financial undertakings from the reference\sponsor in support of the visa application have been considered however, on the basis of financial documentation provided, I am not satisfied that the reference\sponsor has demonstrated a sufficiently strong financial position to make good on financial undertakings provided. I am further not satisfied that the applicant has demonstrated that he\she has sufficient social, economic, professional and\or family ties in his\her country of origin, that would, on balance, obligate his\her return to the home country following the proposed visit. A three month transactional statement was provided which ended some 4 months before the application was submitted for consideration. Unexplained large lump sum lodgement noted in statement provided. Source of that amount and whether those monies are still available is unclear. Overall balance as at end date deemed insufficient. Applicant is stated to be employed however, no documentary evidence provided in support of stated circumstance. Applicant did not provide a six month bank statement, therefore his\her economic circumstances in his\her country of origin could not be established. No evidence provided to establish whether or not the applicant is a home\property owner. No details or evidences provided to establish whether the applicant has any dependant family members in his\her country of origin. No documentary evidence was provided to establish the stated familial link between the applicant and the reference\sponsor. Insufficient documentation\details provided by the applicant to clearly set out his\her immigration history in respect of this State. It is noted that the applicant was granted, on two previous occasions, visit visas in respect of this State. However, insufficient evidence was provided to establish that he\she observed the conditions of those 'visit' visas granted. A suggested way in which observation of 'permitted times in the State' may be established is via the provision of immigration

31506592	Refused	Your visa application has been considered in detail. Since August 2014 there are restrictions on consideration of Irish visa applications from Libyan nationals. This is clearly illustrated on our website at www.dfa.ie/irish-embassy/uae/our-services/visas/application-details-by-country/libya-visa-details . As your visa application does not meet the exception to the restrictions your visa application has been refused.
