29630332	Refused	F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete:- Applicant has not demonstrated a sufficiently strong financial\economic position i.e. via stated employment, in his\her country of origin that would, when considered on balance, satisfy the visa appeals officer that his\her return to the country of origin is necessitated\obligated. The reference\sponsor has not demonstrated that he \she has the financial capacity to make good on financial and accommodation undertakings provided. This finding has been arrived at on the basis of the financial\economic position of the reference\sponsor as per documentation provided. ID:- Insufficient documentation submitted in support of the application:- Applicant did not declare a previous visa refusal at first instance. When this issue was raised as part of refusal reasons in decision at first instance, applicant on appeal declared the omission of disclosing a UK visa refusal as being "an oversight". Having considered the full circumstances of this issue in the round, the visa appeals officer is not satisfied that submissions made on appeal sufficiently address concerns held. Applicant did not provided on appeal a full copy of UK visa refusal letter. Applicant has not provided sufficient evidence of his\her sated immediate family members residence in his\her country of origin. Reference\sponsor has not provided sufficient evidence of income from stated self-employment e.g. year end income\profit or loss revenue assessment documentation. INCO:- Inconsistencies e.g. contradictions in the information supplied:- Inconsistencies are deemed to have arisen when considering stated circumstances of UK visa sought and submissions made on appeal by applicant that he\she has sufficient obligations warranting his\her return to his\her country of origin following proposed visit. OB:- Obligations to return to home country have not been deemed sufficient. Applicant has not demonstrated sufficient social, economic, professional and\or family ties in country of origin that would, when considered in the round, satisfy the visa officer that his\her return to the country of origin following the proposed visit is necessitated\obligated; OC:- Condition - The applicant may branch into the Common Travel Area between Ireland and the UK. This issue arises as a result of findings in respect of UK visa refusal. The fact of non-disclosure of said UK visa refusal serves to compound concerns held in this regard; OC:- Condition - The potential cost of this trip is high in comparison to the applicant's means, and given that no compelling reasons for the trip have been displayed, the visa appeals officer is not satisfied of the applicant's intentions to leave the State following the proposed visit; OC:- Observe the conditions of the visa - the visa sought is for a specific purpose and duration:- the applicant has not satisfied the visa appeals officer that such conditions would be observed. Having considered the full circumstances of this visa application in the round, reasonable concerns arise that the primary purpose of the visa sought may not be for that of a visit. R:- No clear link to reference has been shown. The applicant has not demonstrated, for want of sufficient documentary evidence, the stated familial link to his\her reference in this State. Having considered the full circumstances of this visa application in the round, the visa appeals officer is not satisfied to grant the visa sought. The decision to refuse the granting of the visa sought at first instance has been upheld following appeal.

31435262	Refused	CP:- Need to undertake the course in this State not demonstrated or warranted; F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete; ID:- Insufficient documentation submitted in support of the application. All documentation and submissions made at first instance and on appeal have been examined and considered. Having considered this study visa application in the round, the visa appeals officer is not satisfied to grant the visa sought. Issues and concerns surrounding finances remain. Insufficient documentation provided on appeal to sufficiently support evidence stated particulars and circumstances surrounding source of lump sum lodgements and stated familial relationships. On appeal, the applicant states his\her intentions of an extended study plan to that set out at first instance. Reasonable concerns arise that the applicant's stated financial sponsor is not in a position to make good on financial undertakings provided. The sponsor's purportedly sufficiently strong financial and economic position is not borne out by the evidences provided. Having considered the full circumstances of this visa application in the round, the applicant has not demonstrated, to the satisfaction of the visa appeals officer, a credible need to undertake the proposed course of studies in this State. Reasonable concerns arise in respect of the financial capacity of the applicant's stated sponsor. Further, reasonable concerns arise that study may not be the primary purpose of the visa sought. The decision to refuse the granting of the visa sought at first instance has been upheld following appeal.
