Whilst the applicant may have the option of staying behind under the student graduate scheme it is not, or never was, the intention of any such scheme that circumstances may compel any student to stay behind in order to fulfil and service their onerous financial obligations. It is open to serious doubt, based on the information provided, that the applicant can afford to study this course in Ireland without opening themselves and/or their family or sponsors up to a serious level of financial risk. It is not desirable that an applicant should be put in that situation. OC: - Observe the conditions of the visa - the visa sought is for a specific purpose and duration. The Visa Officer has examined and considered all the documentation submitted with reference to your circumstances in your own country. You have not sufficiently satisfied the Visa Officer that your primary objective is to pursue a course of studies, nor that the economic opportunities in your country of origin would encourage you to leave Ireland after this course of study is completed
