34515532	Refused	The INIS website has all of the information you will need to make an application for a visa. Before appealing this decision, please check the INIS website to ensure you have included all of the relevant documents. A – Information – As outlined on the INIS website 1. The visa officer has examined the evidence submitted by you in support of your application and has found no credible reason for the proposed trip. The following information has been considered as part of this decision; Your financial situation The cost of the proposed trip Your family circumstances Your employment details The reason provided for the proposed trip Your travel history Your itinerary B – Finances 1. The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has not been deemed sufficient. C – Obligations to return home and observe the conditions of your visa 1. Information available to the visa officer with regard to your immigration history has diminished the overall credibility of your application. The visa officer has considered the evidence of ties to your country of residence submitted, however this has not been sufficient to satisfy the visa officer, on the balance of probabilities, that you are likely to observe the conditions of any visa granted. 2. As the visa officer is not satisfied of the credibility of your proposed business in Ireland there is no evidence of a genuine reason for this visit. The visa officer is therefore not satisfied that you will observe the conditions of this visa, namely that you will undertake business and no other activities. The visa officer has considered the evidence of ties to your country of residence submitted, however this has not been sufficient to satisfy the visa officer, on the balance of probabilities, that you are likely to observe the conditions of any visa granted. 3. Information supplied by you concerning your personal, economic and family circumstances has been insufficient to satisfy the visa officer that you would observe the conditions of any visa granted, with particular regard to the use of public funds and public resources.

1. The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has not been deemed sufficient.

2. The average balance maintained in your account(s) / your sponsor's account (s) over a period spanning at least 6 months immediately prior to the application has not been deemed sufficient.

C – Observe the conditions of your visa

1. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found insufficient evidence of strong obligations to return to your home country. The following information has been taken into consideration;

- Your family circumstances
- Your employment details
- Your financial situation
- Property owned or rented by you
- Other social, economic or professional ties to your home country

2. The Visa Officer is not satisfied that your primary reason for coming to Ireland is study related, and that the economic opportunities in your country of origin that would encourage you to leave Ireland after the expiry, of your permission to remain, are readily apparent.

3. It is the considered opinion of the Visa Officer that, given the submitted documentation and the merits of your application, that your primary motivation may be migration in, and of, itself, and not study. It is open to reasonable doubt, based on the application submitted, that you would leave Ireland after the expiry, of your permission to remain, expires.

4. Information available to the visa officer concerning your immigration history has diminished the overall credibility of your application. The visa officer has considered the evidence of the applicants personal circumstances in their home country, however this has not been sufficient to satisfy the visa officer, on the balance of probabilities, that you are likely to observe the conditions of any visa granted.

5. Information supplied by you concerning your personal, economic and family circumstances has been insufficient to satisfy the visa officer that you would observe the conditions of any visa granted, with particular regard to the use of public funds/public resources, and the possible risk of overstaying in the State.

Information supplied by you concerning your personal, economic and family circumstances has been insufficient to satisfy the visa officer that you would observe the conditions of any visa granted, with particular regard to the use of public funds/public resources, and the possible risk of overstaying in the State.

3 The visa officer has considered the potential cost of the proposed visit, your income over a period of 6 months, and the reason provided for the visit. The visa officer is not satisfied that the reason provided for the trip adequately justifies the potential cost to you when compared to your income and available finances.

allow them to support you in Ireland while maintaining their family in their home country.

6. You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your sponsor. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your sponsor, or why your sponsor has decided to provide you with the finances stated.

C – Observe the conditions of your visa

1. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found insufficient evidence of strong obligations to return to your home country. The following information has been taken into consideration;

- Your family circumstances
- Your employment details
- Your financial situation
- Property owned or rented by you
- Other social, economic or professional ties to your home country

2. The Visa Officer is not satisfied that your primary reason for coming to Ireland is study related, and that the economic opportunities in your country of origin that would encourage you to leave Ireland after the expiry, of your permission to remain, are readily apparent.

3. It is the considered opinion of the Visa Officer that, given the submitted documentation and the merits of your application, that your primary motivation may be migration in, and of, itself, and not study. It is open to reasonable doubt, based on the application submitted, that you would leave Ireland after the expiry, of your permission to remain, expires.

4. Information available to the visa officer concerning your immigration history has diminished the overall credibility of your application. The visa officer has considered the evidence of the applicants personal circumstances in their home country, however this has not been sufficient to satisfy the visa officer, on the balance of probabilities, that you are likely to observe the conditions of any visa granted.

5. Information supplied by you concerning your personal, economic and family circumstances has been insufficient to satisfy the visa officer that you would observe the conditions of any visa granted, with particular regard to the use of public funds/public resources, and the possible risk of overstaying in the State.

6. The visa officer has considered the potential cost of the proposed course of study, your income and that of your sponsor over a period of 6 months, and the reason provided for the course. The visa officer is not satisfied that the reason provided for the course adequately justifies the potential cost when compared to income and available finances.

2. Inconsistencies in the information supplied in support of your application have been noted by the visa officer and have diminished the overall credibility of your application. Inconsistencies have been noted in the following areas;

- Financial documents
- Evidence of sponsor's circumstances

B – Finances

1. The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has not been deemed sufficient.
2. The average balance maintained in your account(s) / your sponsor's account (s) over a period spanning at least 6 months immediately prior to the application has not been deemed sufficient.
3. The average balance of your sponsors account (income minus outgoings) over the past 6 months has been considered by the visa officer and has not been deemed sufficient to cover the potential cost of your course. The visa officer has also considered your sponsor's average income over the past 6 months and the cost of living in their home country compared with the potential cost of this course and has concluded that their financial situation is unlikely to allow them to support you in Ireland while maintaining their family in their home country.

C – Observe the conditions of your visa

1. The Visa Officer is not satisfied that your primary reason for coming to Ireland is study related, and that the economic opportunities in your country of origin that would encourage you to leave Ireland after the expiry, of your permission to remain, are readily apparent.
2. It is the considered opinion of the Visa Officer that, given the submitted documentation and the merits of your application, that your primary motivation may be migration in, and of, itself, and not study. It is open to reasonable doubt, based on the application submitted, that you would leave Ireland after the expiry, of your permission to remain, expires.
3. Application letter. Evidence of ties to your home country. 3. You have submitted information in support of your visa application which has been deemed by the visa officer to be false or misleading. 4. The visa officer has examined the evidence submitted by you in support of your application and has found no credible reason for the proposed trip. The following information has been considered as part of this decision; Your financial situation. The cost of the proposed trip. Your family circumstances. Your employment details. Your travel history. Your itinerary.

Application Decisions:

Decisions for period from 04/12/2018 to 10/12/2018

Classification: DJELR

Mission: INIS Dublin

5. Information available to the visa office indicates that you have negative immigration history in relation to which you have made a declaration to the contrary. You are therefore not permitted to make further visa applications for a period of five years. Any application made by you before this time has elapsed will be refused.

B – Finances

1. The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has not been deemed sufficient.

2. The average balance maintained in your account(s) over a period spanning at least 6 months immediately prior to the application has not been deemed sufficient.

3. The majority of the money available to you for this trip has been lodged to your account in lump sums within the past 6 months, and no explanation as to the source of this money has been provided.

4. The average balance of your account (income minus outgoings) over the past 6 months has been considered by the visa officer and has not been deemed sufficient to cover the potential cost of your trip. The visa officer has also considered your average income over the past 6 months and the cost of living in your home country compared with the potential cost of this trip and has concluded that your financial situation is unlikely to allow you to support yourself in Ireland.

5. You have not provided sufficient evidence as to the source of your income.

C – Obligations to return home and observe the conditions of your visa

1. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found insufficient evidence of strong obligations to return to your home country. The following information has been taken into consideration;

Your family circumstances.

Your employment details.

Property owned or rented by you.

Other social, economic or professional ties to your home country.

2. Information supplied by you concerning your personal, economic and family circumstances has been insufficient to satisfy the visa officer that you would observe the conditions of any visa granted, with particular regard to the use of public funds/public resources, and the possible risk of overstaying in the State.

3. Information available to the visa office concerning your UK immigration history, along with your personal, economic and family circumstances, has diminished the overall credibility of your application. As such, the visa officer is not satisfied that you will observe the conditions of any visa granted, with particular regard to the maintenance of the integrity of the Common Travel Area.

4. The visa officer has considered the potential cost of the proposed visit, your income over a period of 6 months, and the reason provided for the visit. The visa officer is not satisfied that the reason provided for the trip adequately justifies the potential cost to you when compared to your income and available finances.
