Application Decisions:

Decisions for period from 10/07/2018 to 16/07/2018

Classification: DJELR

Mission: INIS Dublin

INCO – Inconsistencies.

- Contradictions existing in information supplied i.e. details provided in application and details provided in course enrolment letter.

CP – Course Profile.

- Need to undertake this course has not been sufficiently shown.

SP – Student Profile.

- Previous educational background is at odds with course applied for.

OB – Obligation to return to country of residence is not shown.

- Insufficient social professional and economic ties in country of residence.
- No evidence provided of accommodation in his country of residence.

OC – Observe the conditions of the Visa.

- The visa sought is for a specific purpose and duration, and the applicant has not satisfied the Visa Officer that such conditions would be observed.
- The applicant may overstay following his proposed visit.
- The applicant may work illegally in the State.
- The potential cost of this trip is high in comparison to the applicants' means, and given that no compelling reasons for the trip have been displayed, the visa officer is not satisfied of your intentions to leave the State following your visit.

PR – The granting of the visa may result in a cost to public resources.

PF – The granting of the Visa may result in a cost to public funds.

The Visa Officer is not satisfied of applicants need to undertake course in the State, furthermore the Visa Officer is not satisfied of the applicants obligations to return to home country following the period of study.

Applicant has stated that he is neither studying nor employed in his country of residence, and has not demonstrated a need to undertake a general English course in the State or that similar courses are not readily available in his home country. Undertaking this particular course in the state will not impede on applicant obtaining any form of employment in his country of residence. It is further noted that applicants card of residency expires within a very close timeframe that the intended course of study in the State is due to finish.

Inconsistencies exist in some information provided by the applicant. Declaration letter from applicant refers to him as a student however; he states that he is not in college or employment at present. Enrolment letter for intended course quotes wrong nationality for the applicant.

No documentary evidence provided by the applicant of educational qualifications obtained by him to date. No information provided of what subjects applicant was studying throughout 05/03/14 – 15/11/15 & 15/03/16, and 27/11/17.

Applicant has not provided an up-to-date bank statement covering a full six month period and showing what money has been paid into and out of the Visa Applicants' account over those six months. Banks statements provided for stated financial sponsor are not up-to-date and do not show what money has been paid into and out of the account over a full recent six-month period. Furthermore, the sponsors' source of finances have not been declared. Another three-page document was submitted in Spanish in the stated sponsors' name. The Visa Officer is not satisfied that applicant has sufficient funds to support his stay in Ireland without recourse to public funds or the reliance on casual employment.
