Further, general employment that the applicant might obtain in their own country would be unlikely to pay a salary that would service this loan and provide enough for the applicant to live on afterwards. The applicant would almost certainly have to work in Ireland on a long term basis in order to service the repayments. Whilst the applicant may have the option of staying behind under the student graduate scheme it is not, or never was, the intention of any such scheme that circumstances may compel any student to stay behind in order to fulfil and service their onerous financial obligations. It is open to serious doubt, based on the information provided, that the applicant can afford to study this course in Ireland without opening themselves and/or their family or sponsors up to a serious level of financial risk. It is not desirable that an applicant should be put in that situation.
