The failure to submit sufficient supporting documentation in the following areas has diminished the overall credibility of your application; Employment documents Evidence of ties to your home country Evidence of sponsor's circumstances 2. The quality of supporting documentation submitted by you in the following areas has diminished the overall credibility of your application;  Employment documents 3. The visa officer has examined the evidence submitted by you in support of your application and has found no credible reason for the proposed trip. The following information has been considered as part of this decision;  Your financial situation The cost of the proposed trip Your family circumstances Your employment details The relationship between your business and that of your reference The reason provided for the proposed trip Your travel history Your itinerary 4. The majority of the money available to you for this trip has been lodged to your account in lump sums within the past 90 days, and no explanation as to the source of this money has been provided. C – Obligation to return home/Observe the conditions of your visa 1. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found insufficient evidence of strong obligations to return to your home country. The following information has been taken into consideration;  Your family circumstances Your employment details Your financial situation Property owned or rented by you Other social, economic or professional ties to your home country 2. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found that your social or family ties to Ireland appear to be stronger than the ties to your home country. As such, the visa officer is not satisfied that there is sufficient reason for you to leave the state upon the expiry of any permission granted to you. 3. As the visa officer is not satisfied of the credibility of your proposed business in Ireland there is no evidence of a genuine reason for this visit. The visa officer is therefore not satisfied that you will observe the conditions of this visa, namely that you will undertake business and no other activities. The visa officer has considered the evidence of ties to your home country submitted, however this has not been sufficient to satisfy the visa officer, on the balance of probabilities, that you are likely to observe the conditions of any visa granted.

Application Decisions:

Decisions for period from 13/11/2018 to 19/11/2018

Classification: DJELR

Mission: INIS Dublin

1. The visa officer has been unable to adequately establish the credibility of the reason for travel provided due to the failure to provide sufficient supporting documentation in the following areas;

Evidence of ties to your home country.

2. The quality of supporting documentation submitted by you in the following areas has diminished the overall credibility of your application;

Financial documents.

Employment documents.

Evidence of ties to your home country.

Evidence of sponsor's circumstances.

3. The visa officer has examined the evidence submitted by you in support of your application and has found no credible reason for the proposed trip. The following information has been considered as part of this decision;

Your financial situation.

The cost of the proposed trip.

Your family circumstances.

Your employment details.

B – Finances

1. The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has not been deemed sufficient.

2. The average balance maintained in your account(s) over a period spanning at least 6 months immediately prior to the application has not been deemed sufficient.

3. The majority of the money available to you for this trip has been lodged to your account in lump sums within the past 6 months, and no explanation as to the source of this money has been provided.

4. The average balance of your account (income minus outgoings) over the past 6 months has been considered by the visa officer and has not been deemed sufficient to cover the potential cost of your trip. The visa officer has also considered your average income over the past 6 months and the cost of living in your home country compared with the potential cost of this trip and has concluded that your financial situation is unlikely to allow you to support yourself in Ireland.

5. You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your sponsor. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your sponsor, or why your sponsor has decided to provide you with the finances stated.

C – Obligations to return home and observe the conditions of your visa

1. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found insufficient evidence of strong obligations to return to your home country. The following information has been taken into consideration;

Your family circumstances.

Your financial situation.

Your family circumstances.
Your host in Ireland.

4. You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your reference in Ireland. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your reference, why your reference has invited you to visit them in Ireland.

B – Finances

1. The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has not been deemed sufficient.

2. The average balance maintained in your account(s) over a period spanning at least 6 months immediately prior to the application has not been deemed sufficient.

3. The average balance of your account (income minus outgoings) over the past 6 months has been considered by the visa officer and has not been deemed sufficient to cover the potential cost of your trip. The visa officer has also considered your average income over the past 6 months and the cost of living in your home country compared with the potential cost of this trip and has concluded that your financial situation is unlikely to allow you to support yourself in Ireland.

4. You have not provided sufficient evidence as to the source of your income.

5. You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your sponsor. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your sponsor, or why your sponsor has decided to provide you with the finances stated.

C – Obligations to return home and observe the conditions of your visa

1. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found insufficient evidence of strong obligations to return to your home country. The following information has been taken into consideration;

Your family circumstances.
Your employment details.
Your financial situation.
Property owned or rented by you.
Other social, economic or professional ties to your home country.

2. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found that your social or family ties to Ireland appear to be stronger than the ties to your home country. As such, the visa officer is not satisfied that there is sufficient reason for you to leave the state upon the expiry of any permission granted to you.

3. The visa officer has considered the evidence of ties to your home country submitted, however this has not been sufficient to satisfy the visa officer, on the balance of probabilities, that you are likely to observe the conditions of any visa granted.

4. Information supplied by you concerning your personal, economic and family circumstances has been insufficient to satisfy the visa officer that you would observe the conditions of any visa granted, with particular regard to the use of public funds/public resources, and the possible risk of overstaying in the State.

5. The visa officer has considered the potential cost of the proposed visit, your

Evidence of a reference in Ireland

3. Inconsistencies in the information supplied in support of your application have been noted by the visa officer and have diminished the overall credibility of your application. Inconsistencies have been noted in the following areas;

You have applied to attend an event on the Isle of Man. This is a territory of the United Kingdom, not the Republic of Ireland.

You have submitted an accommodation booking for Dublin, Ireland, while your event will take place on the Isle of Man. No explanation as to how you intend to travel from Ireland to the Isle of Man has been provided.

You have provided no evidence of being in possession of a visa for the United Kingdom.

4. The visa officer has examined the evidence submitted by you in support of your application and has found no credible reason for the proposed trip. The following information has been considered as part of this decision;

Your financial situation
The cost of the proposed trip
Your family circumstances
Your employment details
The relationship between your business/employment and the proposed event
Your travel history
Your itinerary

B – Finances

1. The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has not been deemed sufficient.

2. The majority of the money available to you for this trip has been lodged to your account in lump sums within the past 6 months, and no explanation as to the source of this money has been provided.

C – Obligations to return home and observe the conditions of your visa

1. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found insufficient evidence of strong obligations to return to your home country. The following information has been taken into consideration;

Your family circumstances
Your employment details
Your financial situation
Property owned or rented by you
Other social, economic or professional ties to your home country

2. As the visa officer is not satisfied of the need for you to attend an event in Ireland, there is insufficient evidence of a genuine reason for this visit. The visa officer is therefore not satisfied that you will observe the conditions of this visa, namely that you will attend the proposed event and no other activities. The visa officer has considered the evidence of ties to your home country submitted, however this has been deemed insufficient to satisfy the visa officer, on the

Application Decisions:

Decisions for period from 13/11/2018 to 19/11/2018

Classification: DJELR

Mission: INIS Dublin

Your travel history
Your host in Ireland
Your itinerary

5. Information available to the visa office indicates that you have negative immigration history in relation to which you have made a declaration to the contrary. You are therefore not permitted to make further visa applications for a period of five years. Any application made by you before this time has elapsed will be refused.

6. You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your reference in Ireland. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your reference, why your reference has invited you to visit them in Ireland, or why your sponsor has decided to provide you with the finances stated.

B – Finances

1. No personal financial documentation has been submitted in respect of the applicant.
2. The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has not been deemed sufficient.
3. You have not provided sufficient evidence as to the source of your income.
4. You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your sponsor. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your sponsor, or why your sponsor has decided to provide you with the finances stated.

C – Obligations to return home and observe the conditions of your visa

1. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found insufficient evidence of strong obligations to return to your home country. The following information has been taken into consideration;

Your family circumstances
Your employment details
Your financial situation
Property owned or rented by you
Other social, economic or professional ties to your home country

2. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found that your social or family ties to Ireland appear to be stronger than the ties to your home country. As such, the visa officer is not satisfied that there is sufficient reason for you to leave the state upon the expiry of any permission granted to you.

3. Information available to the visa officer concerning your immigration history has diminished the overall credibility of your application. The visa officer has considered the evidence of ties to your home country submitted, however this has not been sufficient to satisfy the visa officer, on the balance of probabilities, that you are likely to observe the conditions of any visa granted.

4. Information supplied by you concerning your personal, economic and family circumstances has been insufficient to satisfy the visa officer that you would observe the conditions of any visa granted, with particular regard to the use of public funds/public resources, and the possible risk of overstaying in the State.

If you intend to appeal this decision you should consult the documentation guidelines available: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Applicant did not provide a detailed six-month bank statement from their sponsor in support of their visa application.</li><li>- Applicant has not provided evidence of their or their sponsor's source of funds - 3 recent consecutive payslips or if self-employed, you must submit certified financial accounts for the last full trading year.</li></ul> INCO:- Inconsistencies e.g. contradictions in the information supplied: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- The birth certificate submitted states that the applicant's birth was registered in 2011, this is 15 years after the applicants stated birth. No explanation provided for this inconsistency.</li><li>- Poor quality of employers letter. No explanation provided for this inconsistency.</li><li>- There is no correlation between the claimed income levels of your sponsors and that demonstrated in the documents supplied. No explanation provided for this inconsistency.</li><li>- Applicant applied for a foundation course followed by Year 1 of a Degree programme. This is on the basis that applicant will be successful in passing all the modules on the foundation course. What is the Plan B if applicant fails to pass the modules set out in the Foundation programme? Will the College allow re-sits of exams? VO cannot understand why applicant did not apply for his/her intended course from the beginning as it would have saved money and at least they would be guaranteed a place on the course. Application letter. Evidence of ties to your home country. B – Finance. 1.The average balance of your account (income minus outgoings) over the past 6 months has been considered by the visa officer and has not been deemed sufficient to cover the potential cost of your trip. The visa officer has also considered your average income over the past 6 months and the cost of living in your home country compared with the potential cost of this trip and has concluded that your financial situation is unlikely to allow you to support yourself in Ireland. C – Obligations to return home and observe the conditions of your visa 1.The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found insufficient evidence of strong obligations to return to your home country. The following information has been taken into consideration; Your family circumstances. Your employment details. Your financial situation. 2.Information supplied by you concerning your personal, economic and family circumstances has been insufficient to satisfy the visa officer that you would observe the conditions of any visa granted, with particular regard to the use of public funds/public resources, and the possible risk of overstaying in the State. 3.The visa officer has considered the potential cost of the proposed visit, your income over a period of 6 months, and the reason provided for the visit. The visa officer is not satisfied that the reason provided for the trip adequately justifies the potential cost to you when compared to your income and available finances.

37463212	Refused	There is no automatic right for non-EEA nationals who are family members of Irish citizen who are resident the State to migrate on a long-term basis to Ireland. Your case has been fully examined on the basis of the documentation submitted and it has been decided not to grant your application. The application does not meet the qualifying criteria as set out in the Policy Document on Non-EEA Family Reunification. The visa officer has additionally considered the application under Section 1.12 of the Policy Document and has not found that the application as submitted has demonstrated through documentary evidence an exceptional set of circumstances that would suggest that the appropriate and proportionate decision on the visa application should be positive. It has been stated that it is unsafe for the applicant to continue to live in her current place of residence in her home country, however insufficient evidence of this has been submitted. Insufficient evidence has been submitted to show that relocation to another area of her home country, where she could be supported financially by her proposed sponsor, is not feasible or reasonable. Insufficient documentation submitted in support of the application:- please see Documents Required for Join Family visa applications as displayed on our website - www.inis.gov.ie. Application does not meet the qualifying criteria as set out in the Policy Document on Non-EEA Family Reunification Section 14, specifically sub-section 14.4 and 14.5. Insufficient evidence of the applicant being an ongoing dependent of the sponsors has been submitted. Insufficient evidence of the applicant being a family member of the sponsors has been submitted. The granting of the visa may result in a cost to public funds. The visa officer has reasonable concerns that the granting of a visa to the applicant to reside in the State could result in costs to the State. The granting of the visa may result in a cost to public resources. The visa officer has reasonable concerns that the granting of a visa to the applicant to reside in the State could result in costs to the public resources of the State.

Employment documents
Evidence of ties to your home country
Evidence of sponsor's circumstances
Evidence of link to reference

3. The visa officer has examined the evidence submitted by you in support of your application and has found no credible reason for the proposed trip. The following information has been considered as part of this decision;

Your financial situation
The cost of the proposed trip
Your family circumstances
Your employment details
Your travel history
Your host in Ireland
Your itinerary

4. You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your reference in Ireland. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your reference, why your reference has invited you to visit them in Ireland

B – Finances

1. The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has not been deemed sufficient.

2. The average balance maintained in your account(s) over a period spanning at least 6 months immediately prior to the application has not been deemed sufficient.

3. The average balance of your account (income minus outgoings) over the past 6 months has been considered by the visa officer and has not been deemed sufficient to cover the potential cost of your trip. The visa officer has also considered your average income over the past 6 months and the cost of living in your home country compared with the potential cost of this trip and has concluded that your financial situation is unlikely to allow you to support yourself in Ireland.

4. You have not provided sufficient evidence as to the source of your income.

5. You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your sponsor. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your sponsor
