Document on Non-EEA Family Reunification section. 17.6.

F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete:

- As per INIS website applicant has not provided a detailed statement of their bank accounts covering a six month period immediately prior to their application.
- As per INIS website applicant has not provided a detailed statement of their sponsor's bank accounts covering a six month period immediately prior to their application.
- As per INIS website applicant has not provided evidence that their sponsor meets the minimum level of earnings required - P60s for the 3 years immediately prior to the date of their application and 3 recent consecutive payslips.

ID:- Documents provided not translated.

ID: - Insufficient documentation submitted in support of the application:- The INIS website (www.inis.gov.ie) contains comprehensive guidelines on documentation required for each type of visa application. If you intend to appeal this decision you should consult the documentation guidelines available:

– Insufficient documentation submitted as evidence of social or financial dependency.

If you are making your application on the basis of financial and social dependency on your sponsor you must provide documentary evidence to establish that you are actually dependent on your sponsor. While the nature of the documentary evidence may vary from case to case evidence of the following will normally be relevant:

- Amount, frequency and duration of the financial support provided by your sponsor (e.g. copies of your sponsor's bank statements showing transfers to your account, copies of your bank statements showing receipt of those amounts),
- Any other sources of income that you may have,
- If you have no other source of income, evidence of why you are unable to work, why you are not eligible for state benefits etc.,
- Your living costs (e.g. evidence of mortgage/rent, utility, food, medical, education payments).
- Details of any other family members in your country of residence.
- Your medical condition (where relevant), relationship with the sponsor including evidence of active and continuous involvement in your life e.g. evidence of visits, correspondence.

– Insufficient documentation submitted as evidence of on-going routine communication and emotional support between the applicant and sponsor since the sponsor elected to travel to Ireland. Insufficient evidence submitted to show that the sponsor has been supporting the applicant financially since the sponsor arrived in Ireland.

– The applicant has supplied insufficient proof as to the genuineness of the relationship between them and their sponsor.

Spouse or civil partner

- If your sponsor (spouse/civil partner) is residing in Ireland and you have not resided together since your marriage/civil partnership, you must also provide a full account of your relationship history (where and when you met evidenced by e.g. visas, entry/exit stamps on the passport of your spouse, photographs, correspondence by e-mail, telephone etc.).
- For immigration purposes it is not sufficient for a relationship to have developed solely over the internet or by telephone/sms. A relationship must include a number of face to face meetings (excluding webcam) between the parties.

– Applicant has not supplied proof that their sponsor has received written permission from the landlord for an extra tenant to reside in the premises. No information has been provided regarding the suitability of the property to house additional people.

In the latter cases INIS may undertake an extensive examination of the circumstances to confirm that the sponsors caring for the child and, where relevant, that the other parent has agreed to the child's move to Ireland. In cases involving a child, the best interests of that child will be a key consideration in any decision made.) Applicant does not meet the qualifying criteria, as per 14.1 of the Policy Document on Family Reunification', where, "Dependency" means that the family member is (i) supported financially by the sponsor on a continuous basis and (ii) that there is evidence of social dependency between the two parties. The degree of dependency must be such as to render independent living at a subsistence level by the family member in his/her home country impossible if that financial and social support were not maintained. A minor child living with its parents will be automatically assumed to be their dependant. Applicant does not meet the qualifying criteria, as per 14.3 of the Policy Document on Family Reunification', where, "dependency" for immigration purposes and in respect of an adult must be pre-existing and sustained prior to the making of the application for family reunification. It must also be established that the dependency existed while the dependant was living in their home country. Insufficient evidence of same provided.

Evidence of sponsor's circumstances

2. The quality of supporting documentation submitted by you in the following areas has diminished the overall credibility of your application;

Financial documents
Employment documents
Evidence of ties to your home country
Evidence of sponsor's circumstances

3. The visa officer has examined the evidence submitted by you in support of your application and has found no credible reason for the proposed trip. The following information has been considered as part of this decision;

Your financial situation
The cost of the proposed trip
Your family circumstances
Your employment details
Your travel history
Your host in Ireland
Your itinerary

4. You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your reference in Ireland. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your reference, why your reference has invited you to visit them in Ireland, or why your sponsor has decided to provide you with the finances stated.

B – Finances

1. The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has not been deemed sufficient.

2. The majority of the money available to you for this trip has been lodged to your account in lump sums within the past 6 months, and no explanation as to the source of this money has been provided.

3. The average balance of your account (income minus outgoings) over the past 6 months has been considered by the visa officer and has not been deemed sufficient to cover the potential cost of your trip. The visa officer has also considered your average income over the past 6 months and the cost of living in your home country compared with the potential cost of this trip and has concluded that your financial situation is unlikely to allow you to support yourself in Ireland.

4. You have not provided sufficient evidence as to the source of your income.

5. You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your sponsor. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your sponsor, or why your sponsor has decided to provide you with the finances stated.
