– Insufficient documentation submitted as evidence of social or financial dependency.

If you are making your application based on financial and social dependency on your sponsor you must provide documentary evidence to establish that you are actually dependent on your sponsor. While the nature of the documentary evidence may vary from case to case, evidence of the following will normally be relevant:

- Amount, frequency and duration of the financial support provided by your sponsor (e.g. copies of your sponsor's bank statements showing transfers to your account, copies of your bank statements showing receipt of those amounts),
- Any other sources of income that you may have,
- If you have no other source of income, evidence of why you are unable to work, why you are not eligible for state benefits etc.,
- Your living costs (e.g. evidence of mortgage/rent, utility, food, medical, education payments).
- Details of any other family members in your country of residence.
- Your medical condition (where relevant), relationship with the sponsor including evidence of active and continuous involvement in your life e.g. evidence of visits, correspondence.

– Insufficient documentation submitted as evidence of on-going routine communication and emotional support between the applicant and sponsor since the sponsor elected to travel to Ireland. Insufficient evidence submitted to show that the sponsor has been supporting the applicant financially since the sponsor arrived in Ireland.

– The applicant has supplied insufficient proof as to the genuineness of the relationship between them and their sponsor.

• If your sponsor (spouse/civil partner) is residing in Ireland and you have not resided together since your marriage/civil partnership, you must also provide a full account of your relationship history (where and when you met evidenced by e.g. visas, entry/exit stamps on the passport of your spouse, photographs, correspondence by e-mail, telephone etc.).

• For immigration purposes, it is not sufficient for a relationship to have developed solely over the internet or by telephone/sms. A relationship must include a number of face-to-face meetings (excluding webcam) between the parties.

• A full account of your relationship history (where and when you met evidenced by e.g. visas, entry/exit stamps on the passport of partner, photographs, correspondence by e-mail, telephone etc.)
