This form of migration can, however, be hugely problematic and is subject to considerable restriction in many jurisdictions, in some cases with extreme waiting times. It is of course entirely understandable that an Irish citizen or a non-EEA national lawfully resident in the State would wish to have his or her elderly parent residing with them so as to ensure their wellbeing as they get older and for the general enrichment of family life. However, it must also be acknowledged that the potential financial liability for the State of providing medical treatment, perhaps nursing home care and other services to an elderly person who is unable to support themselves is very considerable. Applicant has not satisfied the qualifying criteria, as per 18.2 of the Policy Document on Family Reunification' where, The Irish State is simply not in a position to take on financial responsibilities of this nature, nor should it be expected to do so. If the family becomes unable or unwilling to assume the costs of maintenance, then the State could be faced with an invidious choice between assuming the financial burden from the public purse or seeking to deport an elderly person who cannot provide for him/herself. Evidence of a reference in Ireland
Evidence of link to reference

3. The visa officer has examined the evidence submitted by you in support of your application and has found no credible reason for the proposed trip. The following information has been considered as part of this decision;

Your financial situation
The cost of the proposed trip
Your family circumstances
Your employment details
Your travel history
Your host in Ireland
Your itinerary

4. You have submitted insufficient evidence of your reference's right of residence in the state.

5. You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your reference in Ireland. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your reference, why your reference has invited you to visit them in Ireland and why your sponsor has decided to provide you with the finances stated.

B – Finances

1. The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has not been deemed sufficient.

2. The average balance maintained in your account over a period spanning at least 6 months immediately prior to the application has not been deemed sufficient.

3. You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your sponsor. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your sponsor, or why your sponsor has decided to provide you with the finances stated.

C – Obligations to return home and observe the conditions of your visa

1. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found insufficient evidence of strong obligations to return to your home country. The following information has been taken into consideration;

Your family circumstances
Your employment details
Your financial situation
Property owned or rented by you
Other social, economic or professional ties to your home country

2. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found that your social or family ties to Ireland appear to be stronger than the ties to your home country. As such, the visa officer is not satisfied that there is sufficient reason for you to leave the state upon the expiry of any permission granted to you.

3. The visa officer has considered the potential cost of the proposed visit, your income over a period of 6 months, and the reason provided for the visit. The visa officer is not satisfied that the reason provided for the trip adequately justifies the potential cost to you when compared to your income and available finances.

C – Obligations to return home and observe the conditions of your visa

1. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found insufficient evidence of strong obligations to return to your home country. The following information has been taken into consideration;

Your family circumstances
Your employment details
Your financial situation
Property owned or rented by you
Other social, economic or professional ties to your home country

2. The visa officer has considered the information submitted in support of your application and has found that your social or family ties to Ireland appear to be stronger than the ties to your home country. As such, the visa officer is not satisfied that there is sufficient reason for you to leave the state upon the expiry of any permission granted to you.

3. Information available to the visa officer concerning your immigration history has diminished the overall credibility of your application. The visa officer has considered the evidence of ties to your home country submitted, however this
