28316862	Refused	ID:- Applicant has not satisfied the qualifying criteria, as per 18.1 of the Policy Document on Family Reunification' where, The issue of elderly dependent parents has arisen in a number of cases involving both Irish and non-EEA national sponsors. This form of migration can, however, be hugely problematic and is subject to considerable restriction in many jurisdictions, in some cases with extreme waiting times. It is of course entirely understandable that an Irish citizen or a non-EEA national lawfully resident in the State would wish to have his or her elderly parent residing with them so as to ensure their wellbeing as they get older and for the general enrichment of family life. However, it must also be acknowledged that the potential financial liability for the State of providing medical treatment, perhaps nursing home care and other services to an elderly person who is unable to support themselves is very considerable. ID:- Applicant has not satisfied the qualifying criteria, as per 18.2 of the Policy Document on Family Reunification' where, The Irish State is simply not in a position to take on financial responsibilities of this nature, nor should it be expected to do so. Moreover, even where the family in Ireland is willing to assume the initial responsibility of providing for their relative and has a good faith intention to continue to do so, circumstances can change. If the family becomes unable or unwilling to assume the costs of maintenance, then the State could be faced with an invidious choice between assuming the financial burden from the public purse or seeking to deport an elderly person who cannot provide for him/herself. This is not to say that there should be an absolute bar on all such applications but rather that a highly restrictive approach should be taken. Ultimately emigration, including that by Irish people, is undertaken with no legitimate expectation of ever being joined by parents.

31030332	Refused	F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete. The Visa Officer at first instance was not satisfied with the financial documentation provided in support of the original visa application. As per the INIS visa guidelines, an applicant must submit a statement of their bank account(s) covering a 6-month period immediately prior to the visa application. Furthermore, any large movements of funds into or out of an applicant's bank account must be fully explained. The required documentation/information has not been provided in support of this appeal. An updated bank statement was provided and further unexplained lump sum lodgements are noted. The onus rests with the applicant to familiarise himself with the INIS visa guidelines which set out the minimum information/documentation to be provided. ID:- Insufficient documentation submitted in support of the application:- While the Title Deed is noted, you have provided insufficient evidence of income earned by way of property rental, etc. . OB:- Obligations to return to home country have not been deemed sufficient OC:- Condition - The applicant may overstay following proposed visit. OC:- Observe the conditions of the visa - the visa sought is for a specific purpose and duration:- the applicant has not satisfied the visa officer that such conditions would be observed.

31065132	Refused	ID:- Course not on ILEP. All documentation and submissions made on appeal have been considered. Visa appeals officer is not satisfied that the applicant has sufficiently addressed on appeal this issue raised at first instance. Proposed course of studies would appear to be a foundation programme designed to prepare students for study at Master's level. The proposed course of study is not on the ILEP. Submissions on appeal put forward by the applicant have not been deemed sufficient. Having considered the full circumstances of this visa application in the round, the applicant has not demonstrated to the satisfaction of the visa appeals officer a credible need to undertake the proposed course of studies in this State. F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete. Visa appeals officer is not satisfied that the applicant has demonstrated that sufficient finances are available to him\her bearing in mind the duration of proposed course of studies. Insufficient detail and documentary evidences in respect of finances have been provided, e.g. source of monies stated to be available to the applicant. No evidence of educational fee payment by the applicant. Specifically, applicant has not demonstrated that he\she paid the stated fees from his\her own resources. For further information in this regard and all financial aspects, it is suggested that the applicant refers to the detailed financial guidelines in support of a study visa application, as set out on the website of the Irish Naturalisation and Immigration Service, (www.inis.gov.ie). The decision to refuse the granting of the visa sought at first instance has been upheld following appeal.

31435262	Refused	CP:- Need to undertake the course in this State not demonstrated or warranted; F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete; ID:- Insufficient documentation submitted in support of the application. All documentation and submissions made at first instance and on appeal have been examined and considered. Having considered this study visa application in the round, the visa appeals officer is not satisfied to grant the visa sought. Issues and concerns surrounding finances remain. Insufficient documentation provided on appeal to sufficiently support evidence stated particulars and circumstances surrounding source of lump sum lodgements and stated familial relationships. On appeal, the applicant states his\her intentions of an extended study plan to that set out at first instance. Reasonable concerns arise that the applicant's stated financial sponsor is not in a position to make good on financial undertakings provided. The sponsor's purportedly sufficiently strong financial and economic position is not borne out by the evidences provided. Having considered the full circumstances of this visa application in the round, the applicant has not demonstrated, to the satisfaction of the visa appeals officer, a credible need to undertake the proposed course of studies in this State. Reasonable concerns arise in respect of the financial capacity of the applicant's stated sponsor. Further, reasonable concerns arise that study may not be the primary purpose of the visa sought. The decision to refuse the granting of the visa sought at first instance has been upheld following appeal.
